I kept sucking away at the terrific pussy. And now I felt my cock being licked, real quick with short jabs of a hot tongue, licking all around it. Then my balls were being sucked. Then there was a finger slipping up into my asshole again. I felt myself being turned on to a point of no return.

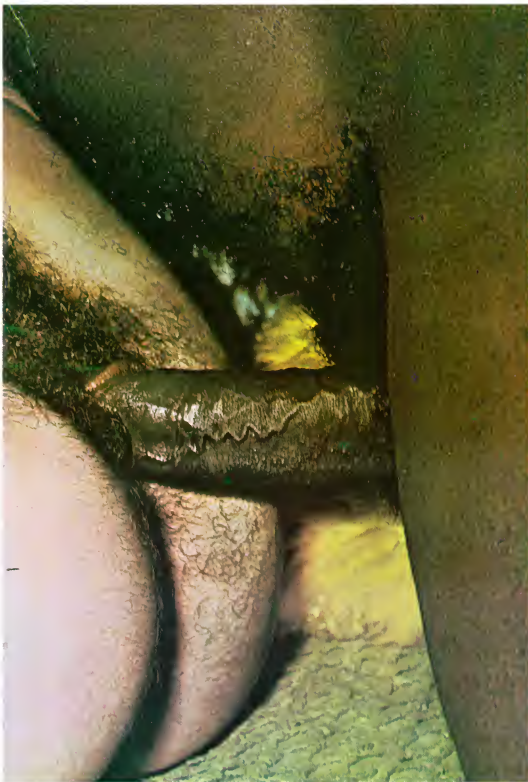

FFP

All of a sudden, I felt my cock give out its first burst of come. Then I felt that cunt jam itself down my whole face so that I could hardly breathe. All I could do was suck at the walls of it and taste the hair and smell that crotch. The crotch smelled like beautiful perfume to me. All I wanted to do was kiss it and suck it and love it.

At some point she squated over my legs and peed all over my prick. When she was finished, I pushed her down on the floor and I took a piss right on her box. The two of us took our hands and smeared the liquid all over each other's bodies.

At one point she looked up at me and moaning and groaning with her eyes half closed she said, "Oh, Tony you're so big. I love it. I really love it."

"You're sure now?" I said.

She laughed, "Keep fucking away."

The two of us moaned together again. I climbed on top of her as if she were a mountain. I pressed my prick into her cunt and as I did that she gasped. I plowed my prick deep into that tight cunt. It was so tight, I was surprised.

She opened her legs wide and I pushed gently. I went in, all the way in, inch by inch. And each inch I shoved. She made some kind of a sound. Her body opened up wide to me.

I squeezed her breasts and the nipples rose to meet the palms of my hands. Her mouth was wide open and she was moaning now, moaning loudly and groaning about the lushness of this beautiful physical relationship. She sounded like a textbook.

Now, I whammed my cock in all at once, driving it in swiftly. And then I began to draw back, slowly, inch by inch. I squeezed her breasts and turned them. Her hands were squeezing the cheeks of my ass, so that my prick pushed against her harder and faster.

I rotated her head around while I fucked her in the face with my cock. I shoved it back as far as I could down her throat. That way she couldn't bite it. I'm sure she was thinking about biting it.

I kept ramming it in there and pulling it back out. The hot moistness of her mouth was working real well on my penis. I was so excited it was only a matter of minutes that I began to ejaculate.

I slapped her across the face again.

I said, "Look, baby. You torture the way you want and I'll torture the way I want. I just tortured the way I want. If you don't like it, let's see what you can do about it."

I sucked and licked as best I could in there and I couldn't control myself because the passion she had in licking my prick in such a beautiful manner was making me like a mad man. I was biting away and licking away and waiting for the juices to flow from her body and finally I felt her beginning to vibrate.

I felt my belt going and slipping away from me. My shirt tails were sticking out now as she pulled my shorts off. She grabbed for my prick as I buried my face in her cunt.

My tongue went right into those pink beautiful insides, the warmth of it

They were magnificent. They stood proud and tall as anything. I couldn't close my eyes, I couldn't help but look at the magnificence of her body. Even from her back her breasts stood tall, the nipples pointing straight up to the ceiling as they were stiff.

The warmth of her body and the smell of her hole was magnificent. I bit her ear and licked her neck. I sucked at it. I told her that she was beautiful and she told me that she was beginning to believe me and when she got to know me better she might trust me a little bit too.

We rolled over and over—all over the floor until we could stop it no longer. I thought she was going to scream. I knew I was. My face buried in her cunt was the thing that stopped me. I kept saying things inside of her cunt and the motion of my lips forming the words kept turning her on because I was touching her clitoris and licking at it with my tongue.

I grabbed the cheeks of her ass and spread them and shoved my finger way the hell up in there as I felt her come. She never stopped it seemed. She kept coming for four or five minutes and while she was in the midst of it, I blasted one into her mouth.

I licked and kissed them. I couldn't keep my mouth off them. I kissed all over her body and slipped my lips and tongue down to her stomach. Now I stuck my tongue into her navel and as I did she moaned and grabbed for my head again.

Both of us slipped away to the floor. I pushed her slip down over her whole body, her beautifully tanned soft body. My tongue licked all over her stomach. I licked between her breasts and sucked on the nipples.

As she did this, I shoved my thumb up her cunt. Then I put a finger up her ass, I wiggled them up and back. I kept her turned on long enough so that she sucked my prick real good..

I smacked her face a half a dozen times and turned her over on her stomach. I lifted her box up to me and fucked her. I shoved my cock all the way into that magnificent cunt.

At any rate, I was fed up. I had ejaculated into her mouth and I was finished. Then I saw Jim on the floor on top of Carla, fucking the shit out of her.

I shoved my prick into her asshole. It was tight but it was well greased from that reamer I had shoved up there. I went all the way in without any problem. It was smooth and tight.

As I began to stroke up and back she squeezed her legs together real hard. The pressure brought to bear on the sides of my prick was enough to make a man's head spin.
